RONDO (french rondeau): The interplay between solo and chorus

The Rondo is perfect and in ideal anatomical shape Its advantage for solo use is the 180° angle:
The wave-design point reaches the deep G-spot, while the lustful curvature on the shaft stimulates the clitoris.

And with the handy, perfectly designed controller, an additional chorus of six buzzing vibrations stimulate the sensitive lust nerves while the musical climaxes applaud.

Rechargeable G-spot vibrator with clitoris stimulation

- Colours: night-blue and lavender
- Size: 16.5 cm x 12 cm
(of which 10 cm insertable), Ø 3.5 cm
- Material: silicone
- 2 synchronised motors
6 vibration rhythms

0571989 0000 Rondo Notte
0571997 0000 Rondo Lavanda

FLORES (latin):
The flower design

Decorative vocals and instrumentals are described as flowers in music – this description certainly applies to our Flores.

With the perfect anatomical form, it elegantly penetrates with its ribbed design down to the G-spot while its additional, extravagant, treble clef decoration not only guarantees perfect handling but also sensitively stimulates the love beads in time with the music.

Battery-operated vibrator with clitoris stimulator

- Colours: green and rose
- Size: 22 cm
(of which 16 cm insertable), Ø 4 cm
- Material: silicone
- 8 vibration rhythms

TRIOLE (latin):

The triple chord

Prolific climaxes are the reputation of this fantastic Triolet; two powerful motors unite to form a pure symphony of lust. Each of the three lust nerves are a climax in themselves, but all three together are a musical masterpiece.

Rechargeable vibrator

- Colours: slate and rose
- Size: 17 cm x 12 cm (of which 10 cm insertable), Ø 3.8 cm
- Material: silicone
- 2 powerful motors
- 6 synchronised vibration rhythms
